

How to use the Angelic Feng Shui Recordings

There are two Angelic Feng Shui Recordings that came with your attunement. You received a link to download these recordings in MP3 format. If you would like to purchase these recordings in CD format, please check page 28.

The Angelic Feng Shui Accelerated Space Clearing Recording is a 12 minute compressed, fast-acting Angelic Feng Shui clearing recording for your home and work spaces.

The Angelic Feng Shui Meditation and Space Healing Recording is a 33 minute long track that can be used for healing meditation and space clearing at the same time, simultaneously healing yourself and the spaces where you are listening to the recording.

Homes

We recommend that you play either of the two recordings at least once per month in your home, or more often if you get frequent visitors. We also recommend that you play the recording(s) right after someone has visited whose energy you would like to clear from the home. You may also want to play them more frequently if you live in a neighborhood that is very busy or if there are reasons for safety concerns.

Businesses

For businesses we recommend that you play either of the recordings at least one time per week, but if your work place gets lots of traffic or if you practice a healing profession, you may want to play the recording every evening, at closing. Some businesses play the recordings once in the morning, before the work day starts and then again in the evening.

Real Estate Listings

For Real Estate listings we recommend that you use the 12 minute Angelic Feng Shui Accelerated Space Clearing Recording. There are two ways to clear real estate property: you can either play the recording on site or you can print out the real estate description from the internet and place the MP3 player on top of the printout (or next to the speakers if you are playing from the CD)

For Meditation

For your meditation practice we recommend that you use the Angelic Feng Shui Meditation and Space Healing 33 minute Recording.

Many people have reported feeling deeply relaxed when listening to Bill Austin's healing and meditation recordings. This is the reason that we decided to produce a longer recording so that people can use the longer recording in order to relax and meditate at the same time as their space is cleared. Play this recording daily during your meditation or any time you feel you need to relax, or to calm yourself down after you have had an upsetting moment.

Warning: These are relaxation recordings. DO NOT play them while driving, operating machinery, or while performing any activity that requires focus and concentration.

Please note that our energy healing recordings are not intended to be medical or psychological treatment nor a replacement for such treatment. All healing that occurs in any session comes from your soul and Spirit. The recordings merely facilitate this process and set a space for the healing to occur.

Energetic Buffers

Moni is very sensitive to manipulative and fear inducing energies and usually stays away from media and especially the news. Moni has found that if she plays either of the Angelic Feng Shui recordings while she reads the newspaper or a news magazine, she is less affected by the less than love frequencies in media and can look at the information objectively without having her emotions pulled into the situation.

Moni also plays the recordings in the background when she is teaching her children history and geography and she needs to address information that may be shocking to them. She has found that the children's emotions are less intense when exposed to this type of information if the recordings are playing.

Difficult Times and Feng Shui Challenges

Play the Angelic Feng Shui Meditation and Space Healing 33 minute Recording more often if you are facing difficulties in any life area in particular or when your life seems to be stuck or you feel like you have no direction. Feng Shui is especially helpful in situations like these.

Play the 12 minute long Angelic Feng Shui Accelerated Space Clearing Recording more often when you need to get motivated to clean, declutter or organize. Play the recording first, then tackle the challenge, so you can devote your whole attention to the task at hand.
